"HU" means far more than a wave or a shoe list.

derives from the first two English letters of HUMAN (human). Its meaning is to link human beings, to praise the diversity of different cultures, to unite and unite forces.

every Adidas Originals collaboration series is designed to drive brands into a new area. Last year with the Philippines Dong PHARRELL WILLIAMS to release "HU" series, playing NMD color and profile. Coming this year, we are excited to unveil the mystery of Tennis Hu - a brand new shoe profile that belongs to Pharrell's personal first exclusive shoes.

two color matching design salute to the past, also inspired from the most classic Adidas tennis shoes type. The pure white shoes that salute the Stan Smith match the green details, while the gold shoes collar, yellow laces and soles combine the logo elements of the tennis shoes of 1970s.

caters to the summer design Tennis Hu with Adidas key shoe technology, comfortable and breathable. White shoe using flexible Primeknit woven material to create the unique texture extension to lightweight waffle EVA midsole, shoelace shoe body structure and seamless combination of the tongue suede label decorated with Adidas Originals logo. Pharrell has added the lightweight features and modern elements of sports shoes to the Tennis Hu tennis shoes. As the world's highly respected producer, Pharrell is a creator, and in music when he will turn into a storyteller, which can predict each pair of the upcoming Tennis Hu comes with a strong story. When last year's HU series was released, Pharrell once said, "I fight for humanity." This year, Pharrell will be inspired by the experience of traveling around the world to create more different color schemes.

there's a story behind all of the great corporate shoes. This is a stepping into the new field of sports shoes, and to highlight the rich history of Adidas Originals.
